

Goal: By 2020, West Virginia ranks among the top 20% internationally for the percentage of adults with an associate's degree or higher

Action Plan

Achieving post-secondary certification & degree completion

Certified Success: Competing in today's economy

October 2011

Action	What are the intended outcomes in addressing the issue?
Establish and launch a comprehensive media/awareness campaign regarding post-secondary credentials which also works to change the perception of a community and technical college education.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Increase in adult learners • Communication and image awareness • A change in student attitude • 10 percent increase in enrollment in middle skills technical programs • Increase post secondary training and degree completion
Create a stake holder information network; with target audience including educators, institutional leaders (boards, administrators), business, labor and community leaders to provide information and a forum for continued discussion of workforce and education needs.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Increase effective communication between workforce and education stakeholders • Develop a comprehensive way of disseminating information • Provide a forum for discussion and idea sharing relative to issues in workforce development and education • Create a space for monitoring the progress of the action plan developed as part of Certified Success
Develop pilot career counselor and career mentor program in cooperation with West Virginia School system blending the work of current counselors with a trained volunteer mentor network.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To increase career counseling opportunities for students grades 9 – 12 • To develop a program that provides career education to students grades 9 – 12 • Provide a program that helps define all career options and post-secondary educational opportunities to students grades 9-12 • Change the perception of community and technical education among this population • Help students define and achieve their post secondary educational goals